Summer C. Mahoney 2015-05-21 This workbook is filled with 100 pages of words and unscrambling and searching and comparing and asking and describing. Ten sections. Each filled with fun and challenging activities to keep your child's mind active during the long summer break. On the first page, your child will compare and contrast a snake and duck and rabbit, looking for things that are the same and things that are different. On the next page, you'll find twenty-nine pairs of homophones, like marry and merry, hare and hair, meet and meat. And then there are fifteen scrambled words on the next page. And four word puzzles. And a creative writing page. And eighteen insect words all mixed up into syllables, like mosquito and centipede and dragonfly. And a page to write ten questions about butterflies. And another to describe the crazy summer. And that is just in the first ten pages of this workbook. There is more, ninety more pages of fun and thinking.
